“ I have been thinking of all the wonderful times I spent at the house with Aunt Wilma, Uncle Hilbert and Bonnie when we came to visit during our summer vacations...all those turkeys in the field. I have a picture in my mind of our old turquoise and white station wagon driving through the turkeys and honking our horn and the turkeys would gobble, gobble. This was big stuff for just a city girl. Thanks for the memories.

Your mom had a great life and I have fond memories of times spent at the farmhouse while we were on vacation as children.
Feeding the turkeys and cows. Playing in the sunflowers, Having the best food always. Memories that will never fade.
